

Albert Meige

Albert Meige has been in the fields of entrepreneurship and innovation since his teenage when he began by selling magic! He is now the founder and CEO of Presans, a company that organizes a worldwide network of experts, which it makes available to large companies.

Albert also gives lectures as a conference speaker on innovation and entrepreneurship. He holds an MBA from HEC Paris business school and a PhD in Physics from the Australian National University.

In 2008, the French École Polytechnique awarded him its Innovation Prize. He has authored several books in his area of expertise, including Innovation Intelligence (2015), as well as over a dozen peer-reviewed academic publications and also holds two patents. Albert can solve the Rubik's Cube in less than fifty seconds and loves urban underground.
